MAJESTIC PAIRINGS

Buns are a classically elegant style – and there's no better way to add a regal touch than by incorporating braids. Add braided extensions to your bun, as well as to the front and sides of your head for extra impact. Maintaining the combination of your natural or relaxed hair and braided extensions is made easier with styling products specifically for your hair type. Keep your natural relaxed hair flawless and sleek by applying a small amount of medium hold gel to it and brushing down any flyaways. Spray the braided portion of your style with a UV spray for moisture, shine and protection against sun damage.
